Why are farms important?

In Caldwell and throughout Idaho, farms are more than mere land; they're the essence of our community, embodying tradition, resilience, and pride. Rooted in our soil and woven into our identity, they stand as symbols of hard work and dedication, enriching our lives connecting us to our past and bringing us into the future with vibrant spirit and delicious bounty.

Statistics

- All of Idaho's 500 dairies are family owned
- $2.6 Billion of Idaho produce is sold worldwide
- 2 Million Flowers = 1lb of Honey
- Idaho Agriculture + Food & Beverage processing is over $20 Billion

Idaho National Rankings

- #1 Potatoes, Barley, Peppermint, Alfalfa Hay
- #2 Sugar beets & Hops
- #3 Cheese & Milk
- #4 Onions, Peas, Wheat & Lentils

What is the Adventure Trail?

Here on the AgVenture Trail, you'll experience the simple life in the heart of Idaho's Snake River Valley. The trail begins and ends in Downtown Caldwell, taking you on country roads through Marsing, Homedale, and Wilder. Along the way, you'll visit local farms and orchards, where you can pick fresh produce, dine on world-class farm-to-fork meals and engage with the local community. You'll learn from the farmers and ranchers who experience this life every day. It's a unique experience for group activities, family outings, and romantic adventures – all within a 30-minute drive of Boise, Idaho.

Explore more of the trail online!

Farm to Fork Farmers Market

Enjoy the AgVenture Trail? Dive into the weekly abundance of Idaho's diverse crops at Destination Caldwell's Farm to Fork Farmers Market. For generations, families have nurtured award-winning fruits, vegetables, grains and spices. Discover the freshest produce for your culinary creations or find unique gifts from local artisans and specialty food makers. Join us at the market, Tuesdays 5pm - 8pm May 14th through September 24th, paired with Indian Creek Plaza's Tuesdays on the Creek Concert Series for an enriching experience!
